

our water is precious he taonga te wai

Kapakapanui Dam

- Dam and reservoir in an unnamed valley east of the Kapakapanui Stream valley, approximately 6 km upstream of the Waikanae Water Treatment Plant.
- Rainfall in the valley catchment would be captured for controlled release during times of low flows in the Waikanae River.
- 36m to 40m high dam.

View up valley showing possible dam crest height

Example of a similar type of dam

This information is based on preliminary concept design only and may change following further investigations and design work.