8 POWERS OF ARREST, SEARCH AND SEIZURE

8.1 Powers of the Police

In any alcohol free zone, the Police have the powers of search, seizure and arrest set out in section 169(2) of the Local Government Act 2002.

Without limiting or broadening the powers under section 169(2), that section enables the Police to:

- (a) search any container or vehicle;
- (b) seize any alcohol or container; and
- (c) arrest a person found committing an offence, or who has refused to comply with a request by the Police to leave the alcohol free zone, or to surrender alcohol in that person's possession.

8.2 Warning by the Police

Before exercising the power of search under section 169(2)(a) of the Local Government Act 2002, section 170(1) of that Act requires the Police to:

- (a) inform the person in possession of the container or the vehicle that he or she has the opportunity of removing the container or the vehicle from the alcohol free zone; and
- (b) give the person reasonable opportunity to remove the container or the vehicle from the alcohol free zone.

Clause 8.2 is subject to the exception in clause 8.3.

8.3 No warning required in certain situations

This Bylaw authorises the Police to exercise the power in section 170(2) of the Local Government Act 2002 on specified dates, or in relation to specified events, that are notified in accordance with section 170(3) of that Act and clause 8.4 of this Bylaw.

Without limiting or broadening the powers under section 170(2), that section enables the Police to search a container or vehicle immediately and without further notice, so that the warning referred to in clause 8.2 is not required.

8.4 Council power to authorise Police

The Council may:

- (a) by public notice given 14 days in advance, specify the alcohol free zone where, and the period when, the Police may exercise the power in section 170(2) (enabling them to search containers and vehicles without giving the warning referred to in clause 8.2); and
- (b) indicate the location of the alcohol free zone by one or more clearly legible notices affixed in one or more conspicuous places on, or adjacent to, the alcohol free zone, unless it is impractical or unreasonable to do so.

9 BREACH OF BYLAW AND PENALTY

Any person who acts in breach of clause 5.1 of this Bylaw commits an offence under section 239A of the Local Government Act 2002 and may be served an infringement notice in accordance with sections 244 and 245 of the Local Government Act 2002 and be required to pay an infringement fee not exceeding $1,000.
