John HOWSON

My principal place of residence is in the KAPITI COAST DISTRICT COUNCIL area.

John Howson is a multi award-winning broadcaster and journalist, business director and senior executive. He was most recently Head of Radio at Radio New Zealand. He and wife Anna Kenna have lived in Raumati for 25 years and have five children between them, including two daughters who attended Kapiti College. John was an elected member of the college's Board of Trustees for nine years and Chair for two of those three terms. During this period the college grew in stature as one of the region's most progressive and successful secondary schools. He chaired the board when the college's new gymnasium was financed and built and during early planning for the Performing Arts centre, which is now under construction. John possesses strong management and governance skills and is an excellent communicator. He is passionate about Kapiti and will add a strong and decisive voice to the Council.
