Its good to have one day when most people don't have to work and families can spend the time together!
Shops are open late and seven days a week the rest of the time, it does not benefit anyone but shops who want to make money!

We have 7 days a week shopping for most of the year, and even a late night now, at Coastlands!
Surely people can organize themselves to make allowance for a few days closed in the year - the staff also have families and a life outside work! Let them enjoy a few days each year!

Shops are open enough days already. It is not necessary to shop every day of the year and retail workers should not feel they have to work every day. Employers will have to pay penalty rates and this is not always viable. Easter Sunday has always been a holiday and should remain that way. It is a day for relaxation and family time. If shops are allowed to open on Easter Sunday it will open the door for Christmas Day trading and all day ANZAC day trading. Although NZ is a multicultural country the Christian faith is the most predominant and Christian values are those followed by most New Zealanders.

I'm not religious so don't care specifically that it's Easter, however it seems that demands for shops to be always open is making a religious idol of money and commerce. I think as a society we should be able to enjoy a few commerce-free days in a year (preferably consecutive) and there is benefit to this being a nation-wide 'down time'. I'd be very happy for this period to be on some other dates, but I believe the current trading restrictions on Christmas and Easter are valuable to our society and should be maintained. There is no need for commerce to be 24/7. And just because workers are legally able to refuse to work on that day doesn't mean they're free from subtle pressure to work. Just as an individual human needs time to rest, sleep, relax and refresh, so too does our society need such time.

If NO, why?

because there is no need for it. people can do without shopping for at least a couple of days in the year. it gives everyone a rest at the same time and also to enjoy family life together. it's greedy of the shop owners to want to open.

My art gallery is open every Sunday of the year, including Easter Sunday. NZ doesn't observe other faiths' holidays so I see no valid reason to comply with the current antiquated legislation. More importantly, Kapiti is a visitor destination. Over the past eight years Artel has acquired many loyal customers from the Wellington region who know that we open on Sundays; and tourists are pleasantly surprised they can buy local product seven days a week. Retail is no longer a Monday to Friday and half a day on Saturday proposition. I look forward to Council adopting an Easter Sunday policy and allowing hardworking retailers and their staff the option of trading. Visitors staying in Kapiti over Easter are looking for something more to do than go to church.

Do you want to speak to the support of your submission? . No

We are keen to get your views on whether Kapiti should end Sunday shop trading by putting a local trading policy in place.

If Council adopts an Easter Sunday shop trading policy, all open for business on Easter Sunday.

If Council does not adopt a policy, only the few shops current by law to open would be able to open.

Do you want Council to adopt an Easter Sunday shop trading policy? No

If NO, why?

I think it should stay as the same, there are only three year that the shops are not open and also still to acknowledge that this is a religious public holiday. As growing up in the 1980's shops were only open on a Saturday morning and I actually like that not open on the religious days. These days are for families to get together but also to acknowledge Christian holiday. I vote against Easter trading :-)

If you wish to speak to your submission we will contact you to arrange a time. Hearings will take place on Thursday 9 November 2017.

Do you want to speak to the council in support of your submission? ☐ Yes ☒ No

We are keen to get your views on whether Kapiti should enable Easter Sunday shop trading by putting a local trading policy in place.

If Council adopts an Easter Sunday shop trading policy, all shops can open for business on Easter Sunday.

If Council does not adopt a policy, only the few shops currently permitted by law to open would be able to open.

Do you want Council to adopt an Easter Sunday shop trading policy? ☐ Yes ☒ No

If NO, why?

I work on Sunday at Coastlands and it is the only Sunday in the year I have off which enables family time which has been slowly eroded over the years by the longer trading hours. Surely people can cope with one Sunday a year that shops are closed as they have in the past.

Moving to an Easter Sunday shop trading policy is great for the community as it will bring more money to our area with the people that are visiting over the weekend.

The world has changed, we are now a 24/7 almost 365 day operation. People don't work Monday to Friday anymore. Tourists expect to be able to access what they require when they are here, at present they cannot do this. So far, around the country, those that have adopted a trading policy have had no adverse reactions or effects.

I do not think it necessary for shops to open on Easter Sunday. Its ridiculous that people can't stay away from the shops for just that 1 day. Instead promote fun family activities on the day for everyone to enjoy!

Do you want to speak to the council in support of your submission? . No

We are keen to get your views on whether Kapiti should enable Easter Sunday shop trading by putting a local trading policy in place.

If Council adopts an Easter Sunday shop trading policy, all shops can open for business on Easter Sunday.

If Council does not adopt a policy, only the few shops currently permitted by law to open would be able to open.

Do you want Council to adopt an Easter Sunday shop trading policy?      No

If NO, why?

There are only 3 1/2 days in this year free of trading. For those working in retail industries there has been a great loss of family time due to having to work weekend rosters. We need to keep these days free to give families time together. Unfortunately the political clout of merchandise chains seems greater than the common sense view.

I believe shops are open six days a week, some till late at night, so there is plenty of opportunity to shop. It would mean some people would be forced to work by their employer against their will. Let us have a day for the family.

I think families should have holiday time together with no pressure for parents to work, we are losing this as a society. People say that others can choose to work but I don't believe that is the case.

If NO, why?

Shop keepers and their staff have very few public holidays free as it is. They need family time. Also Easter has religious significance for a lot of people and where staff have such beliefs they may not be able to attend services or functions to celebrate/worship if the trading policy goes ahead. Also, if such a policy goes ahead it seems only fair that local government and other (non-shop) businesses etc. also open on Easter.

2. If YES, why?
3. If NO, why?	Shop Keepers and their staff have very few public holidays free as it is. They need family time. Also Easter has religious significance for a lot of people and where staff have such beliefs they may not be able to attend services or functions to celebrate/worship if the trading policy goes ahead. Also, if such a policy goes ahead it seems only fair that local government and other (non-shop) businesses etc also open on Easter.

Workers deserve time off with their families. We have a pitiful number of days that shops are closed allowing workers a guaranteed day off. There are plenty of days to shop!
