PUBLIC SPEAKING TIME (for items relating to the agenda)

Mr Phillip Harris spoke to the grant application from the Kapiti Coast Festival, for funds to assist with the cost of marketing, signage and advertising for the event, as well as reimbursing the Mary Potter Hospice for time spent working on the project. He then answered questions from Committee members.

Mr Ben Jamieson spoke to the grant application from the Ōtaki Māori Racing Club, for funds to assist with the 'Kāpiti Farmers Market' project proposal. He queried the assessment that had been given to the project, as he felt it merited more points than had been granted on certain criteria. He then answered questions from Committee members.

Mr Geoff Culverwell spoke to the grant application from Kapiti Music and Entertainment Limited, for funds to assist with the proposed 'Kapiti Coast International Jazz Festival' event. He then answered questions from Committee members.
