

Application for Manager's Certificate

Form 19, Section 219, Sale and Supply of Alcohol Act 2012

Current fees to apply for a new manager's certificate costs $316.25. Once we've received your complete application and payment, we'll assess your application.

You must apply for your manager's certificate from the District Licensing Committee in the region you intend to use it.

We require at least three to six months' experience in the sale and supply of alcohol, depending on the type of premises you work in.

Attach the following supporting documents to this application:

- photo identification, such as your passport or driver licence
- a copy of your Licence Controller Qualification (LCQ), bridging certificate or NZQA accredited trainer certificates for unit standards 4646 and 1670
- one reference from your employer where you intend using your manager's certificate, providing evidence of your experience
- one or more character references (from someone other than your employer who has known you longer than six months)
- a copy of your work visa (if applicable)
- proof of payment.

Right to work in New Zealand

- I am a New Zealand or Australian citizen.
- I am a New Zealand or Australian permanent resident.
- I have a work visa or visa with work rights.

If you have a work visa or visa with work rights, please complete the following and sign below:

- I undertake to only use my manager's certificate when I have a current visa that allows me to work in New Zealand.
- I undertake to comply with any conditions that apply to my visa – for example, any restriction on where I can work.
