LOCALITY PLAN FOR ŌTAKI – MID CENTRAL DHB

Kelly Isles provided members with a copy of the Health and Wellbeing Plan, which she spoke to and answered members questions. The process is about placing people at the centre of the plan and listening to the voice of the communities.

A Health and Well-being Advisory Group was established made up of a cross section of the Ōtaki Community to help guide the community engagement process. Over two hundred people were engaged and fed back into the process. Common themes included:

- timely access to health care
- mental health and addiction
- better communication
- healthy living
- boundaries and their impact e.g. on the use of ambulance services

Tangible actions over a one to five year period have been captured in the Health and Wellbeing plan. Ms Isles committed to coming back within the next 12 months to provide an update to the Community Board.
